

Turf. Fans Enjoy Classy Card At Upper Marlboro Opening

By HIGHWAY.

Despite the sweltering heat, hundreds of Washingtonians motored to Marlboro yesterday afternoon to take advantage of special trains that they might enjoy the opening of the 5-day racing meet there which is being held in connection with an elaborate horse show and fair.

The races and fair at Upper Marlboro are being conducted under the auspices of the Southern Maryland Agricultural Fair Association and the genial "Jim" O'Hara and all of his assistants who so capably handled the Bowie race course were on hand yesterday afternoon to see that everything ran off smoothly.

There were two features which called for attention during the afternoon's racing. The first was the opening race for mares, stallions, or geldings of any age which were the property of an officer of the U. S. army, navy or marine corps or of the U. S. government.

This race was won by Maj. Stevenson who rode Madelle. Maj. Stevenson's other entry, Jubilation, ran third. Lieut. Cunningham, who rode Belle Beach, one of the two government entries, placed second, after being outdriven by Maj. Stevenson.

Thrills Pays Well.

The other feature was the taking of the six remaining purses by popular favorites which had the advantage of racing at Hagerstown last week. Those horses that faced the barrier at Hagerstown made a clean sweep of the program. Two of them that were successful at the 5-day meeting which was run off last week yesterday afternoon at Marlboro, for generous mutual prices, namely, Thrills at $11 for $2, and Trapping at $13 for $2.

C. Smith's Brize, which was ridden by Jockey Stirling, the popular Baltimore rider who reported for duty at Marlboro yesterday, was passed about as a good thing in the nightcap yesterday. It was circulated that a number of notables had passed in the checks on him. Whichever of the Jockey Stirling's net get his mount to respond sufficiently when he called upon him on the far turn and both Thrills and Rey Ennis beat him to the wire.

Hafferty Wins Easily.

Rafferty, a 5-year-old which possesses a bit of class, at last succeeded in connecting with a

COLLYERS COMMENT on the SPORT of KINGS

Direct West.

From the fabled trough comes the information that the Ross connections intend unwrapping a haymaker on the "Iron Men" today. The medium of the plume is to be Silent West. An inconsistent "baby" that can run fast and far when the occasion demands. The price is sure to be juicy, and those in the know are stringing their play across the board. Do you get me, Al? Royal Visitor is a pretty shifty sort of a youngster with a mighty good chance to trim P. Joy for the place. The latter won a creditable race the other day. All this happens in the second at Fort Erie this afternoon.

From where I sit Natural seems to have the call in the day's opener. Is a fair sort, and will have the benefit of a good boy in the coop. "Pop" Schorr's good youngster Alberta S. is sure to be knocking at the door. Loch Leven burned up a ton of money the last time out. May come to life today and run one of those good races. Trophy should be able to trim that band of gophers in the third. Duke Ruff and Tarascon have the balance of the purse between them.

All over but the shouting in the fourth. Here's where they yank Marjorie Hynes out of the pickle vat. The "dynamite" were busy over night placing commissions where they would do the most good. You know the answer. From this distance it looks like any price would be a good one. Vulcane has been going along fairly well in private trials, but may need this race to tighten up. The balance of the field does not call for much.

The fifth is strictly a two-horse affair between Boniface and King's Champion. Personally, I sort of fancy the chances of Ross' old breadwinner slightly best. St. Quentin will be close up. The "inside stuff" is that Sweet Liberty is due for an awakening in the sixth. Copper Bepperson may go awfully well in the last. "Nuff said."
